Thank you for visiting Indiana Department of Transportation!

Please read through the information below prior to your arrival. Should you have any questions, feel free to reach out to the department or person you will be meeting, or contact our Executive Administrative Assistant, Jenny Ziemer 317-232-3166.

- Parking
 - The Government Center has three parking facilities available to guests.* You may park in any of these locations. The signs at our parking facilities may say 'employee parking only' but we allow our guests to take a parking ticket and park in these locations*
 - Tickets are administered in specific lanes of the parking garages.
 - Capitol Avenue parking has only one lane to enter and exit
 - Senate Avenue parking has two entrances, tickets are available in the far-right lane at either entrance*
 - Washington Street parking has only one entrance available to the public; please enter from Missouri Street and use the right lanes of either bay 1 or bay 3
 - Please keep your ticket with you to present for validation*
- Indiana Government Center North
 - Enter IGCN through the Public Entrance on the south side of the building (off of Robert Orr Plaza)
 - After passing through security, take the WEST elevators to the 7th floor
 - Proceed to the Executive Office (N758)
 - Please give the administrative assistant in the Executive Office your parking ticket. They will be able to validate your ticket so you will not be responsible for a parking fee*
 - Please register at the kiosk in the INDOT Executive Reception area or from the link that will be sent to you by the meeting organizer. This person will meet you at the Reception area or where they indicate.

*Please note: non-employees will not be admitted for parking during legislative sessions. Alternative parking will be required; any fee associated with parking will be the responsibility of our guests
